

Dear FCC: I do not want any legislative changes to the laws that currently govern the No-Call List in the state of Wisconsin or nationwide. This kind of consumer protection is critical to Wisconsin taxpaying residents that reject telephone solicitation. As a voting citizen of Dane County, I will do everything within my legal rights to oppose legislation that would weaken these laws and give advantages to banking or any other commercial interest. Respectfully, Minda Lawson, Madison, Wisconsin